

Shubhankar Biswal (Batch of 2015-17), currently part of Accenture's Sustainability Strategy team, sharing his remarkable career journey, offering deep insights into the sustainability landscape. Shubhankar walked the audience through his career path, touching on key experiences and lessons learned. He actively engaged with students, providing clear and insightful responses. The session was informative, interactive, and motivating for all.